Speechcraft: “Toastmasters on a Trial Basis”

By Dan

If you have been looking for a way to improve your communication skills, then Brea Toastmasters is the place for you. Brea Toastmasters is sponsoring a “Speechcraft”, which is an introduction to Toastmasters. You will get to experience Toastmasters without having to join – Toastmasters on a trial basis, if you will. So if you would you like to:

- ◆ Overcome the fear of speaking
- ◆ Learn to control nervousness
- ◆ Master impromptu speaking
- ◆ Learn how to organize a speech
- ◆ Improve public speaking skills

-Whether you are a beginner or just want to improve your speaking skills – this valuable seminar is for you! This will be a time to learn what Toastmasters is all about and find out the positive impact it can have in your life both personally and professionally.

We will be getting together for six Monday evenings in a row at the ECCU Community Center located at 950 Mariner St., in Brea, starting September 13th from 6:30 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. A cost of $40 will include all materials needed. For more information please contact Marc at (714) 883-2693. ECCU staff contact Bev @ extension 1695. Brea Toastmasters has over 30 years experience of helping lay and professional people improve their communication skills, so invest in yourself and your future and hope to see you there!

The ECCU Community Center is located at 950 Mariner Street in the city of Brea
1 block north of Imperial Hwy,
